SECRET

Dear

(Luke)

We have been informed by our Swiss friends that towards the end of December 1960 the Swiss Embassy in Moscow received a number of printed pamphlets from a number of Soviet citizens in the Ukraine which the latter had received from Switzerland. The pamphlets contained propaganda material from an apparently anti-Soviet Ukrainian organisation calling itself U.G.W.R. (which letters appear to stand for whatever 'General Secretariat for external affairs of the supreme Ukrainian Liberation Committee' means in Ukrainian). The addressees were asked to write to the following:-

- a) Kish (Kisch) Petro - 3, Cypress Avenue, Brooklyn (Vic.), Australia.
- b) Vozniak, Iwan - P.B. 32 Stn., "E", Toronto 4, Ontario, Canada.
- c) Sekolak, Stefan - Box 8461, New Post Office, Chicago, III, U.S.A.
- d) Triska S. - 2, Elmthorpe Avenue, Lenton, Nottingham, Great Britain.
- e) Walko, W.T. - 52, Johnson Road, Lenton, Nottingham, Great Britain.
- f) Iytwiniak, Mrs. O. - 201, Central Avenue, Inglewood, Western Australia
- g) München 2 - Schliessfach 236, B.R., Germany.

One of the pamphlets had been posted in Basel, five others in Zurich. The sender's name has been found to be fictitious in every case, but to judge by the handwriting, all were in fact sent by the same person.

2. We have no trace of any of the names mentioned, nor of the organisation. We should be grateful if you would let us know if you have any information or interest in this organisation.

3. We have thought it worth following up because it may have some kind of reflection on our mailing operation 'Long Live Leninism.'
